

Winter Vacation Days

Winter Wilderness Skills

Tuesday, February 27

Do you like to build forts and roast marshmallows over a campfire? Then this day is for you! Join us for an exciting day building practical winter shelters for fun and survival.

Over the River and Through the Woods

Thursday, March 1

Journey to the most secret spots at Audubon as we explore the winter wilderness. We'll follow our sense of adventure and move off-trail, letting our senses guide us.

Bird-Friendly Maple Sugaring

Monday, March 5

Kick off our sweetest season with a fun-filled, active day that is all about making maple syrup! Audubon's sugarbush offers great places for birds to forage, hide, and raise young. We'll discover why it's important to practice Bird-friendly Maple Sugaring.
